9 Writing

A good narrative describes events in a way that the reader can share the sensory and emotional experience of the writer.

☺Go over the information about time words.

Scan the first two lines of the text in B to find time words.

For example:

Before the race…,

While the jockeys…

time words help to clarify the sequence of events in a story.

Writing Corner

1. A narrative story usually describes the events in the order that they happened. It describes what the writer feels and senses, so the reader can imagine being there.
2. Use time words to show sequence: when, as, while, before, and after. If a time word begins the sentence, there is a comma after the time clause.
3. An exclamation point (!) shows strong feelings, like the writer is shouting.
4. Use quotation marks (“ ”) around the exact words that a person says.

☺Read the information about exclamation points.

☺Scan the text in B to find exclamation points.

Examples include:

"That's the winner!";

Prince was in front by a neck!;

Prince was the winner by two lengths!

☺How does the writer feel when he makes these statements.

excited

☺Go over the information about quotation marks and scan the text in B to find examples.

"That's the winner!";

"They're off".

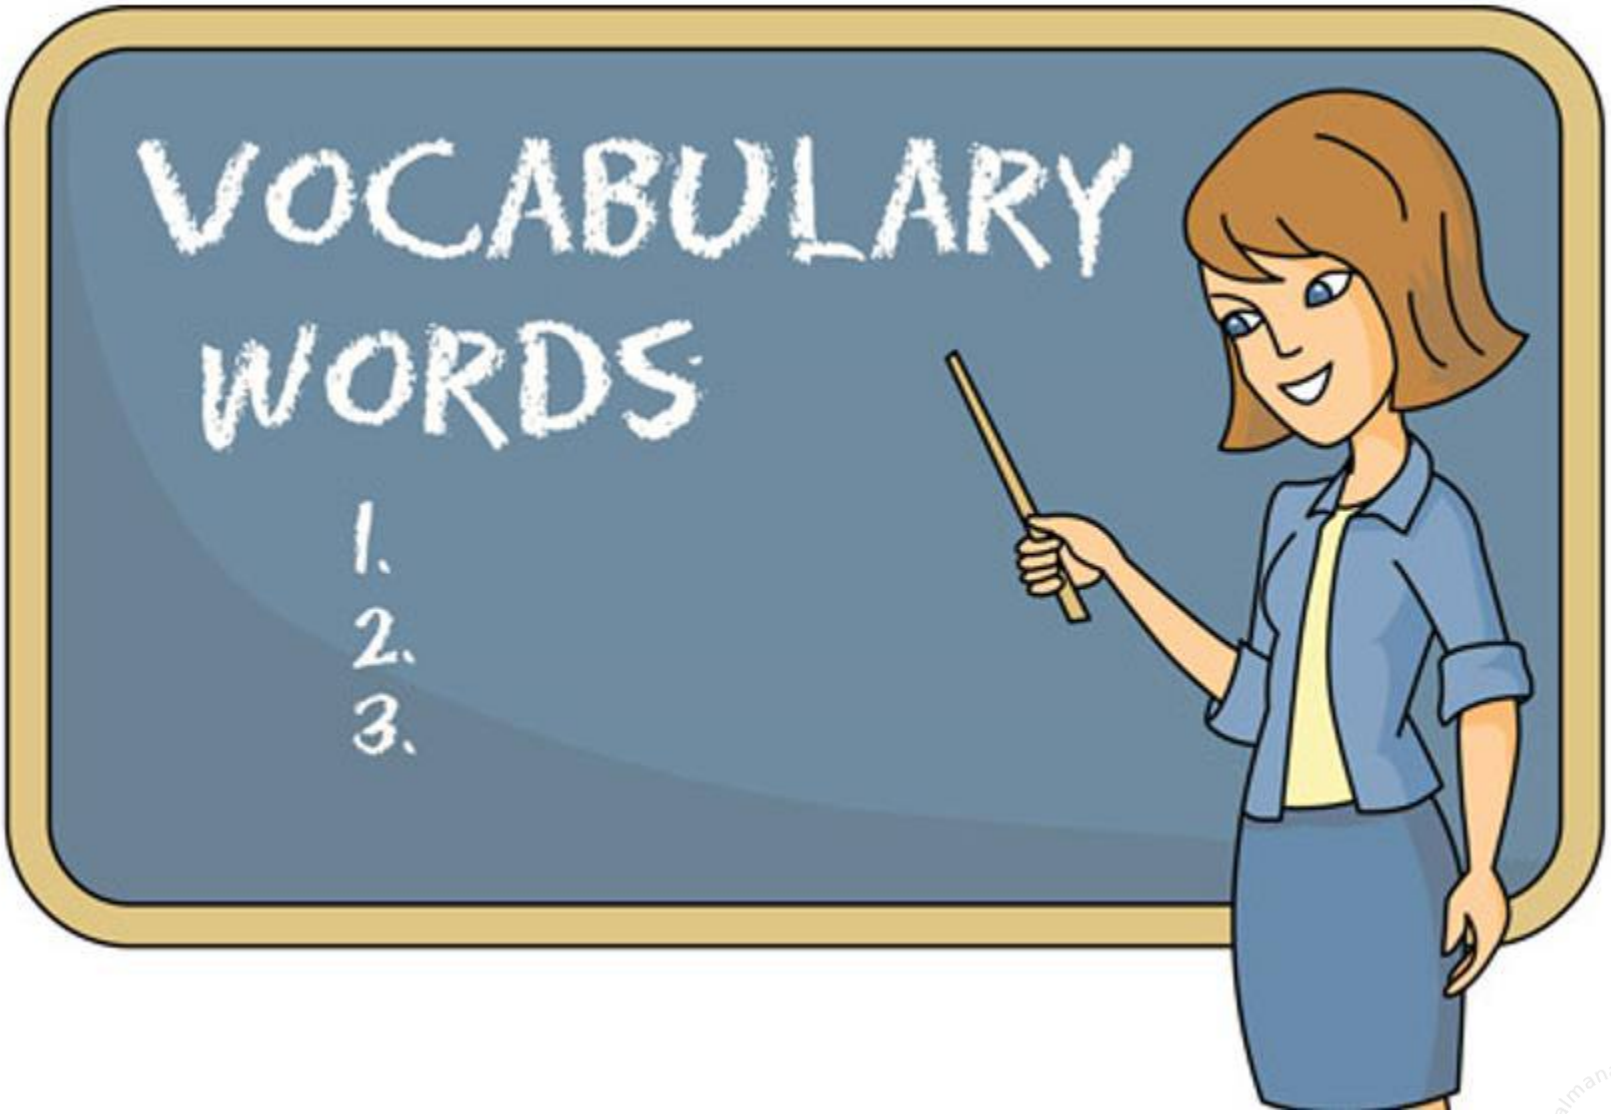

Direct quotes in narratives help the reader to "hear" sounds and speech from the story.

Writing Corner

1. A narrative story usually describes the events in the order that they happened. It describes what the writer feels and senses, so the reader can imagine being there.
2. Use time words to show sequence: when, as, while, before, and after. If a time word begins the sentence, there is a comma after the time clause.

B. Read about Faisal's experience at a horse race. Learn the meaning of the words in the box. Then, complete the paragraph with the words.

nervous	crowd	thundered	shook	silent	paraded	excited	cheered

Last month, I went to a horse race for the first time. Before the race, my father and I walked by the stables to see the horses. While the jockeys (1) paraded past us, one of the horses jumped up on its back legs. The horse, named Prince, was very (2) nervous, but the jockey looked confident. I said to my father, "That's the winner!" Then we pushed through the noisy (3) crowd to find a place near the track. The horses were ready to start, and suddenly the crowd was (4) silent. "They're off," shouted the announcer. The horses (5) thundered past us, and it felt like the ground (6) shook. They disappeared around the track, so I looked in my binoculars. Prince was in front by a neck! I started to jump because I was so (7) excited. As they crossed the finish line, the crowd (8) cheered. Prince was the winner by two lengths!

A Museum Event

I went to the Museum of Natural History. I saw a great exhibit there. It was an exhibit of Egyptian mummies. There were three mummies in their gold coffins. There were rooms from the tombs, too. I went with my friends Ali and Tariq. After that, we walked through the rooms and looked at the mummies. It was awesome!

10 Project

Check on the events in your town. Choose one, and make a brochure about it. Present your brochure to the class.

Check in your local newspaper or on the Web for the week's events in your town.

☺Organize yourselves in groups and have each group make a brochure for one of the events.

☺Make sure the brochure is attractive and informative.

☺look in magazines and newspapers to find pictures and words to include in your brochures.

Groups show your brochures to the class.

The class votes on the best one.

Last month, I went with my friends to a match. I was very excited because it was Alhilal against Al Ittihad. When I got there, the stadium was very crowded, and all the people were blue and yellow. After the match started, the sound of the cheering and whistles were all over the place. While I was watching my team, I saw a man selling pop corn, so I bought some for me and my friends. It was fantastic.
