Here is our weekly roundup of the weekend's events in our town.
Did you miss anything good? Listen to our reporters' opinions.

Here's our sports reporter, John Everett.

The tickets were expensive for an important football game between the Rovers and the Blues, and I don't think people got their money's worth. The game was very slow. I thought that the players weren't very professional, and they didn't play very hard. The teams were out for an afternoon jog. Also, the referee was terrible. He stopped the play for every little thing. The final score was one to nothing for the Rovers.

And now our restaurant critic, Peter Nelson.

There were over fifty hungry customers at Evergreen, waiting for the new vegetarian restaurant to open its doors. It was clear that the restaurant didn't expect so many people. Some customers waited half an hour just for the server to take their order. When the food finally came, it was cold and tasteless. And there were no more daily specials after the first hour. Customers were really disappointed.

And now our cultural events reporter, Leonard Appleton.

The Modern Art Museum gathered works of artists from many countries for its new exhibit. For example, there were keys, a microwave oven, a mirror, a toothbrush, and a refrigerator—each item was in a separate glass box. The items reminded me of my kitchen. And that's where you need to stay. Stay home! Don't go to this exhibit.

And now our shopping advisor, Rina Redman.

This weekend, the new Five Stars shopping mall opened to thousands of excited customers. There were over 350 stores and services, and a huge food court with a variety of ethnic foods. It had all the conveniences for customers, including a huge parking lot and air-conditioning. The mall was bright and cheerful, with modern colors and tropical plants everywhere. There was also a beautiful aquarium with exotic fish and an art exhibit for visitors to enjoy. And best of all was the friendly and helpful service.

My students,

I miss you so much
