Teaching Tip

Whenever possible, review and reinforce language presented in previous units. For example, it is helpful for students to remember the tenses of some familiar verbs and compare them to the new verb tense they are learning: Did you ride a camel when you were a child? Have you ever ridden a camel?

Additional Activity

Guess Who? Have students think of another student and the activities that student has performed. Volunteers give clues by saying sentences such as the following: He has been hang gliding. He has ridden a camel. He hasn't eaten durian fruit. Students try to guess the identity of the student.

facts

- A zorse is a hybrid animal of a male zebra and a female horse. A zorse is usually the color of its horse mother with stripes from its zebra father.
- Zorses are two to three times stronger than horses. They were first bred in the early 1900s in South Africa to pull carts. However, they are considered difficult to domesticate and train.

Language Builder

Explain that ever is used in questions to ask about activities you have done in your life. For example: Have you ever been to Spain?

Never is used in negative statements. For example: I have never been to Spain. It is also possible to use ever after not in negative statements. For example: I haven't ever been to Spain.
